

What is Peer Support Program?

The idea behind establishing a Peer Support Program was based on the essential role that students play in encouraging and supporting each other throughout their university studies.

Therefore, the Office of Student Academic Support at the College of Education aims to equip the participant peers in the program with the necessary skills and strategies that will help them to effectively support their peers in academic and personal domains.

Peer Support Program Objectives

1. Understanding students' needs and the challenges they face.
2. Enhancing students' learning skills.
3. Sharing academic and personal experiences.
4. Achieving academic excellence.
5. Creating a new aspect of student work and group work.
6. Providing a new learning modality from peers with the same major.
7. Developing an elite group of students distinguished by their teaching and leadership skills.

Conditions for Participating in the Peer Support Program

1. Completing at least 24 credit hours.
2. 3.0 GPA at a minimum.
3. Possessing effective study skills.
4. Commitment to helping peers.
5. Good communication skills.
6. Having patience and respecting others.

Benefits for Participating in the Peer Support Program

1. Developing essential skills in the personal and professional domains.
2. Using the acquired experiences to strengthen and reinforce the field of study.
3. Enhancing self-esteem and self-confidence.
4. Receiving financial reward.
5. Recognizing the participating peers in various CED events.
6. Receiving certificate of experience.