◆ Meeting Agenda:

1. Review of the most prominent events of the past month.
2. Assigning college Boards to prepare a long-term plan.
3. Discussing the status of inactive members and the mechanism for assigning them tasks.
4. Other topics.

◆ Topics that discussed during the Meeting:

1. The most important activities and events in which the Board participated during the past month were reviewed, including participation in the "In the Footsteps of the Greats" event in cooperation with the Leadership Department, in addition to holding regular meetings with the Traffic Congestion Committee, and other meetings to follow up on student issues and raise them to the relevant authorities.
2. It was noted that there has been a noticeable improvement in the quality of reports submitted by the Boards during the past period, both in terms of adherence to timely submission and the clarity of evaluations and task details, which contributed to supporting the work of the committee responsible for preparing the newsletter.
3. The preparation of a future plan model extending to the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth terms was discussed, so that it can be adopted as a general framework for the work of the councils in upcoming terms, enhancing the institutional work of the General Board. This plan includes defining the general objectives of the General Board, alongside the specific objectives of each college Board, with each college Board formulating them according to its needs.
4. The mechanism for dealing with inactive members based on periodic report observations was discussed and presented, where it was decided to assign them additional tasks to compensate for shortcomings. A proposal was also put forward to send a monthly report including the number of absences for each member, aiming to enhance commitment and clarity of follow-up.

◆ Meeting Report:

1. It was decided to implement the approved mechanism for addressing the situation of inactive members, by assigning them additional tasks to compensate for the lack of participation, with follow-up on their commitment to the assigned work.

2. It was decided to assign the college Boards to prepare a long-term plan specifically for the tenth session of the student representative Board, including general objectives, proposed programs, and implementation mechanisms, with these plans to be submitted to the general Board for approval.
